Amendments Announced in Letter Shi-Da-Ren-Zi No. 1041013580 dated June 5, 2015

Article 1. These Regulations have been established to govern the University's awarding of Emeritus status to honor professors with extraordinary contributions in teaching, research or their professional fields after their retirement.

Article 2. A professor nominated or recommended to receive Emeritus status shall meet one of the following criteria:

1. The professor is an academician of Academia Sinica.

2. The professor has been a recipient of the National Culture Award from the Executive Yuan, the Academic Award from the Ministry of Education or the National Award for Arts or has received National Chair Professorship Award.

3. The professor has received 20 or more Outstanding åResearch Awards, Excellent Research Awards or Research Awards (including principal investigator allowance) from the Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST), formerly known as the National Science Council (NSC). (Should multiple awards be received in the same year, they shall be counted as one.)

4. The professor has been widely recognized domestically and internationally for his/her academic performance and reputation.

A professor’s nomination or recommendation in accordance with Subparagraph 4 in the preceding Paragraph shall be deliberated on before approval by the College-level Faculty Evaluation Meeting. Following said approval, the convener of the University-level Faculty Evaluation Meeting shall submit documents pertaining to said nominee to three external scholars and experts for review and academic qualification verification, which shall be used as a reference by the University-level Faculty Evaluation Meeting during deliberation.

Article 3. A professor may be nominated to receive Emeritus status by the director of each department, undergraduate, graduate institute or degree program, depending on actual needs. A professor may also be recommended with a petition made by over 20 professors at the University, to be submitted to said professor's department, major, graduate institute or degree program. Said nomination or recommendation shall require approval by Department-level and College-level Faculty Evaluation Meetings and endorsed by the
